The MEOE draws your attention to the fact that FCI kennel name ADVANCE GREAT DANES is still valid.

President's Report

Hello again,

June already, it only seems a few weeks ago that I was eagerly awaiting the first show of the year.

One thing of interest that has happened since my last report is the resurrection of the German Shepherd Dog Club. The GSDCNT has been dormant for several years but thanks to the hard work of two ladies especially, the club now has a bright future.

These two ladies, Margaret Adams and Jenny Kenworthy deserve public recognition for the work they have done behind the scenes. Margaret would be known to many of you from showing her Shepherds in the All Breeds ring, but has also been involved in German Shepherd Dog rescue as well as acting as our contact and resident expert on GSD related matters.

Jenny on the other hand may only be remembered by some of the old hands. She is a life Member of the GSDCNT and was Vice President of the N.A.C.A back in the early 1980's. Although relocating to Canberra around 1984, she has retained a special interest in the GSDCNT. When realising the clubs situation was not improving, Jenny organised a Special Meeting of Shepherd enthusiasts to be held. Using her own money (not to mention her time) she came back to Darwin prior to this meeting and working with former committee members she ensured those who wanted to bring the club back to life had everything they needed to do so. The turnout at this meeting was very heartening with stalwarts of the breed in Darwin coming along not only to lend support to the club, but pass on their knowledge to the many GSD owners (and their dogs) that also attended.

For those present at the AGM, I mentioned in my report my belief that we need to get out in to the general public more and promote our organisation. An opportunity is available to do so, during the Animal Awareness Week being organised by the Animal Welfare Branch. It is called the Pets Day out and will be held at the Jingili Water Gardens on Sunday 3 July from 9am to 1pm. I know some of you will be in Alice Springs that week end, but those who aren't and want to help promote Dogs NT and your own dogs please let me know as soon as possible.

Everyone is probably preparing for our showcase events during July and August; please take a little time to reflect on why we do this, it is our hobby, a time for us to enjoy our dogs and the company of like minded people.

For those travelling up and down the Stuart Highway, please take care. We are a rare breed, us Dog People and our preservation is paramount.

Until next time

ANKC Notices

9/03/2011

Withdrawal of Border Collie Litter Registration Limitations (LRL)

We refer to the Border Collie Litter Registration Limitation (LRL) resulting from the 2009 Breed Survey.

At the request of the National Border Collie Council the LRL's as surveyed in 2009 will be withdrawn until they have been reconsidered by the National Border Collie Breed Council.

Until that has occurred and the ANKC has received further advice from the National Border Collie Breed Council there are no limitations on registration of Border Collie litters.

Clause 8.7 has been removed from ANKC Regulations Part 6 at this time and the ANKC website will be updated accordingly.
